HUN FORCES NEAR PINK ARE NOW IN GREAT PERIL

Austrians Fighting Desperately to Prevent Envelopment.

Germans Claim Allies Have Seized Greek Island.

(By Times Special Cable.)
London, Jan. 8.—The Russian offensive still occupies the most important place in the news of the war, with the capture of Ostryak as the latest achievement reported. The Russians claim full possession of the village, but the Austrians deny they have advanced any further than the cemetery.

The Austrians apparently are fighting desperately in this region in the effort to hold their positions as a screen for Kovel and a link between the Austro-German armies in Galicia and those further north in the neighborhood of Pink, which is threatened with envelopment as a result of the Russian advance.

The news regarding Ostryak must be taken with reserve. A German report, dated later than that of the Russians, claims that all the lost ground has been retaken. The town may become a second Osmowits, which apparently is untenable by either side.

On the British front in the west the Germans have attacked near the Lille-Armentieres railroad, but, according to official British advice, have been repulsed. Both the British and French heavy artillery were busily engaged yesterday.

Consequently reports the Allies have again bombarded the Negroes from land and sea.

Adjournment of Parliament over the week-end has brought a lull in the controversy over compulsory military service.

DETENTION WAS OPENED FOR SOLDIERS

The military dental clinic has been established and was opened this morning. The presentation to the authorities of the great need for a clinic resulted in their ordering one for Hamilton without delay. Captain (Dr.) W. G. Thompson has received orders to assume charge and his assistant will be Lieut. (Dr.) S. G. Alderson. The clinic will be conducted in the office of Dr. Alderson, Park & Park building and military men will get every needed attention upon presenting an order from their officers.

The new clinic will have two operating chairs, the two dentists and four assistants, who will do the mechanical work. The equipment has been supplied by the government and was arranged in the new office last night, ready to commence work this morning.

Speaking of the dental work necessary for the soldiers, Captain Thompson, this morning in Hamilton, there was work enough to send the soldiers for six dentists. The government allows but two units there are three thousand soldiers quartered in Hamilton. There allowance is made for them in my office.

That the teeth of nearly all of the soldiers have been found to be in bad condition, was the statement of Dr. Thompson. It was necessary in a great many cases to do extractions and then place work, as nothing but the roots, as a rule, were found. "We have sometimes extracted from forty to fifty teeth in my office," he said.

Hundreds of the men had neglected their teeth completely. Many of them had never had attention at all. Consequently, in many cases, it took considerable time to do anything for them.

"An ordinary town of a thousand people provides dental work for one dentist, and we have here a town of 100,000," stated Dr. Thompson. "With soldiers the work must be done as speedily as possible, and there is a great deal more of it. Consequently, we should have a few more dentists on the staff. However, we will do the work as speedily as possible."

KAISER NEAR DEATH IN ZEPPELIN FLIGHT

(By Times Special Cable.)
Potsdam, Jan. 8.—The Kaiser is under great strain from the final story of a narrow escape from death by Emperor William during a Zeppelin flight over Weser. Although the story is officially denied in Germany, the Bourso Genettes' correspondent claims that he is in possession of circumstantial details of the entire incident, and as corroboration of the verity of his statement says the crew and officers of the Zeppelin were especially rewarded for having saved the Emperor's life during the flight at the front.

dederation was made with a view to the Kaiser's understanding the importance of the intentions which may result in Germany.

(By Times Special Cable.)
London, Jan. 8.—The accidental wrecking of a Zeppelin at Namsen, Belgium, yesterday, is reported in an American press dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. According to this information the dirigible became entangled in telegraph wires while attempting to make a landing. Two members of the crew are said to have been killed.

Two, Philip, of Sandwich, has come to Hamilton to take a position in the head office of the Dominion Camera.

PROVES HUN INHUMANITY

(By Times Special Cable.)

Rome, Jan. 8.—A fishing vessel got in at Anzio yesterday with the lifeboat from the steamship Ancona, which has been picked up. Examination of the boat seems to bear out the assertion that it was fired upon and sunk, while containing passengers, among whom were women, by the Austrian submarine which torpedoed the Ancona. Many hairpins were found in the boat. Several holes in it, apparently made by shells from the submarine, had been stopped up with shavings and torn skirts.

DICKENSON FOR WARDEN

Suggestion That Tory and Liberal Get Firm Alternately.

Politics May Not Out Much Figure
This Year.

The opinion of who is to be the next Warden of the County of Wentworth is being freely discussed among the representatives of the different townships. J. F. Dickenson, reeve of Glanville, is the most likely man for the position, and the chances of his being given the post are good.

It is announced that a letter would be forwarded to the Ontario Commissioner to Hamilton regarding the proposed new rate between the County of Wentworth and Hamilton, being nearer the distributing centre.

The Hydro Board has given out by the decision and has notified the Hydro Board to the consumers as given out by the decision and has notified the Hydro Board to the consumers as given out by the decision.

John Douglas, ex-warden and deputy reeve of Dundas, stated that it was his opinion that the honor should be had alternately, and that he would support a Liberal candidate this year, providing the Liberals agree to put a Tory candidate in the next year.

W. Vance, a Conservative, was in, in 1914, Hugh Hartman, a Liberal, filled the post. He was not a candidate for the honor, it is possible that opposition to Mr. Dickenson will come from the Tory candidate in Barton, the chance of the candidate being elected is not very small.

Considerable interest is centering around the County Court action of R. Scholten against William Hunt, Gaule, Langs & Croftwell issued a writ on behalf of the "former" this morning for recovery of $1,000 damages alleged to have been caused by the plaintiff selling him a number of pigs which, it is alleged, he sold.

The note is understood to have already been received by the British Foreign Office.

TORONTO BEATEN TO FRAZZLE

is Local Hydro Commission's View of Rates

But Will Still Go After Lower Figures.

The Hydro Board met this morning, and, on a motion of Willegham Mills, supported by the Mayor, although not present, T. J. Stewart was elected chairman. In well-chosen words he thanked the members of the board, and stated he would fill the duties to the best of his ability.

Willegham Mills stated that Toronto papers were boasting that Toronto had the cheapest Hydro rate in the world, but he added that they must have meant the Toronto World, because Hamilton had their rates beaten by far. To use the statement of Commissioner Mills: "We have them beaten to a frazzle."

Reveries were expressed at the absence of the Mayor, who is confined to his home with an attack of grip.

Engineer Sifton gave out the information that he had received a communication from the Chicago Automobile Finance Company that the trial equipment, which will be installed in the Hydro department of the City Hall, would arrive in the city about Monday or Tuesday, and that an expert would arrive to superintend the installation of the apparatus.

T. J. Stewart remarked on the wonderful prosperity of Hamilton at the present time, and suggested Sifton announced that the Hydro had not had an application for work in the past six months, which indicated the labor situation. Mr. Stewart added that conditions would be good even if the Hydro Board were to be elected.

The Hydro Board will meet every two weeks during 1916.

It was announced that a letter would be forwarded to the Ontario Commissioner to Hamilton regarding the proposed new rate between the County of Wentworth and Hamilton, being nearer the distributing centre.

Archbishop Bruchet's Clear-Out

Of Quebec People's Duty to the Motherland.

(By Times Special Wire.)

Montreal, Jan. 8.—An explanation of the attitude of the Roman Catholic Archbishop of Quebec in regard to the war was made by Archbishop Bruchet at a meeting in aid of the military hospital of the city.

The Archbishop said: "Canada being a part of the British Empire, it is the sacred duty of the Canadian people to assist Great Britain in her heroic defence of liberty. This was the position taken by the Archbishop of Quebec in regard to the war, and this is the attitude of the Roman Catholic Church in Canada at this time."

Striking Combinations in the Season's Furs

Seal Striped With Ermine

Novelty Fox is in High Favor

WOMAN is this season given the most delightful liberty of choice in the important matter of furs. Seasons there have been when only one and certainly not more than two furs were fashionable. Take, for instance, the season of squirrel. It was squirrel, squirrel on every woman prosperous enough to have a new set that season. Now, in this winter season of 1915, one may virtually make a choice of any sort of fur. Indeed, there is no possible limit, and the range extends from ermine to monkey. Of course, some furs are more popular than others; that is to be expected. Among these latter one finds seal, fox of many varieties, fitch (both German and Russian), ermine, beaver, marten and krimmer, not to speak of several other popular kinds.

More novelty of combination and cut is seen in the fur sets of 1915 than for some seasons past, or, perhaps, than ever before. The cross-barred set of seal and ermine is decidedly effective, and may be as expensive as one likes, depending upon the grade of furs used, and may be really quite reasonable if one can be content with less than the best. The white cross-bars are formed of inset strips of unmarked ermine. Otherwise, the cut of the set is quite conservative, being a barrel muff with an oblong scarf.

Conservative, but in very good taste and having decided smartness, is the set of "small furs" in fitch. The collar is combined with black velvet, and the muff is melon-shaped and made of pieces of the fur sewed together much as the quarters of an orange. This melon shape is a revival of the latter part of last year's fur fashion. There is a cantaloupe muff now in the melon class, and it has found favor with the woman who can afford more than one set of furs; the cantaloupe muff is such a novelty that many women prefer having a more conservative set to carry with it alternately.

Beaver and seal are fashionable this year, both separately and combined. An instance of their smartness is seen in the four-piece set, including muff, neckpiece, hat and bag. The bag is really the only radical bit about the set, and that is most effective and not beyond the pale of the conservative fashionable. Altogether the four-piece set is a happy idea.

Black and white fox, or, to be more correct, black and white foxes, are much liked by young girls. They are combined, both in the same set, and are, to say the least, striking. While some women object to such a conspicuous set on the plea of becoming tired of it after the first season, the dyepot is the "way out" for next season. Light furs can always be dyed.

Yes, altogether, it is a most satisfactory fur season, in variety, prices and cut.

REFERENDUM INSTEAD OF BRITISH ELECTION

New Plan Being Talked of if the Fight on Conscription is Continued

But Likelihood of the Trouble Seems to be Waning Now.

London, Jan. 7.—The political situation to-day was calmer after the overwhelming vote secured by the Government in the House of Commons Thursday night on the first reading of its Compulsion Bill. The reassuring vote of the Government's majority offered to a considerable degree the anti-conscientious vote of the Labor Gossip is generally agreed that Premier Asquith will have little difficulty in filling the vacancies in the Cabinet caused by the resignations of Mr. Henderson and Sir John A. Simon, the Home Secretary, Herbert Gladstone and Sir John Lubbock. General, is the man most talked of as Sir John A. Simon's successor, but there has been no general agreement as to what man will be probable man for Mr. Henderson's place.

One of the most interesting suggestions heard in London today was the proposal to make the House of Lords the alternative for a general election if dangerous hostility appears between the two Houses, and to enlarge during the latter stages of the Corporation Bill before Parliament. The suggestion was first made and suggested in England during the past few years as a desirable addition to the House of Lords, and it was adopted. It was adopted as a part of the Bill which was passed in 1911 to reform the House of Lords, and it was to be in force for six years.

and will not sit again until Monday. The indications are that the conscription bill will be passed through the House of Commons in order that it may reach the House of Lords in ample time for passage before the end of the month.

The speaker (talk of a general election still persists, but it is certain that a considerable part of even the opponents of conscription do not want a resort to the ballot.

The advocates of the referendum now plead that the question of conscription being isolated from all other questions of domestic politics is particularly suitable for the test of a popular vote. Moreover, they say that the vote even of the men in the ranks of a standing army would be taken, whereas, the ordinary Parliamentary ballot would be impossible.

Loomington, Ont., Jan. 7.—The mysterious disappearance of Rifle, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Fox, of Hymersville, is creating a good deal of excitement throughout the country. She came to Loomington last week from her home near York to bring her grandmother, Mrs. John Jeffery, a New Year's gift, and to see her mother. On Saturday afternoon at the Jeffery home, she went to the room of Mr. E. B. Fox, who was absent that night. Her whereabouts she was seen on Tabbot street, where she had been waiting until he disappeared, and has not been seen since.

The first intimation of the girl's disappearance came to her father in the form of a note on Saturday, which was signed "Rifle," and ran as follows: "I was forced into this position at the point of a revolver by a man who said he was staying here today and then sail for England. They told me I must go with him or they will kill all right." The note bore no signature.

Rifle's brother disarmed about five months ago, and has not been heard from since. He was 18 years of age.

THE THEATRES AND THOSE IN THE FOOTLIGHT GLOW

THE "OUTCAST" SPECTROSCOPIC

Founded on the old-fashioned notion of man and woman, giving the devotees of real English literature something for real thought, the "Outcast" coming from the pen of the late Henry Davies, gave the theatre last evening to a large audience at the Grand Opera House. Many of the devotees have been inspired with the idea of redressing the old, old story of the outcast growing into position of giving to those who sit in the front of the footlights some inside picture of how the man on the street feels and longs for better things. The "Outcast" does not with interest and judicious limit, a young man going to waste through his own disappointment is suddenly inspired by the chance acquaintance of a friend. Undertaking to give her a "savage" conditions do not allow him to forget the love of the past. The time comes when he feels he must terminate the friendship with the girl and return to extend sympathy to his original sweetheart, now leaving her husband. Stirring scenes follow rapidly, and the return of one to his husband and the other to the girl he had raised from the depths of despair, climaxed in the final act. The play is intensely interesting, even if the outward expression of the audience has not been taken as an indication. It is a play which leaves an impression lasting for more than a day and which induces one to return to witness it again as opportunity offers.

Nirram and Geoffrey Sherwood are the main characters. The former is played by Jeanne Engle. She undertakes the role with distinction which won the admiration of Hamilton who saw Madge Thatcher with Lewis Waller in "A Marriage of Convenience," or Marjorie Maude with her father in "Second in Command." A natural expression throughout the play gives to Miss Engle an advantage many others are not so fortunate as to possess. There was no doubt, last night of the feeling the audience had for her work. Handled well as Sherwood was excellent. Mildred Costell was Valentine, the lady of the first love, and she performed to the satisfaction of all. The other roles were Hugh, a young barrister, played by Stanley Harrison; Tony, a society man, otherwise Vernon E. Kelso; Taylor, valet to Sherwood, taken by C. H. Rolfe; Nellie, a friend of Nirram, who provides a little humor, ably handled by May Folsie, and Walter Ashby, a butler, who has little to do. The company is well selected and gives a creditable performance of a play which has been decidedly interesting until the final word.

MRS. FISKE IN VANITY FAIR

"Vanity Fair" with Mrs. Fiske, which comes to the Grand the first half of next week, is by all odds the most important film ever made by Kilmour. It is a story as far as Mrs. Fiske is concerned as Mrs. Fiske and to surround her with a cast of more than four hundred people in something of a feature even in these days of expensive picture-making. Mrs. Fiske, who has played the role of Becky precisely one thousand times, consented to do so for the thousand and first time before the motion picture camera. Her Becky is among the greatest of stage impersonations in the history of the theatre. This great seven-act feature will be presented twice daily at 2:30 and 8:15, and the ever popular series of 12 and 15 acts will prevail for evening performances, when seats can be reserved, and for matinees 10 and 15 cents will be charged, and no doubt at the above price the big playhouse will be packed every performance.

MUTT AND JEFF IN COLLAGE

Opening at the Grand next Thursday night for an engagement of four performances, Gus Hill will present for the first time the fourth edition of his Plaster's great cartoon series, "Mutt and Jeff," entitled "Mutt and Jeff in College." After reviewing all established theatrical records for volume of laughs and pleasing audiences, this remarkable attraction will offer an interesting season, retaining nothing but the title and those two character comedians, "Mutt and Jeff," who have been the most remarkable successes in the history of the press and theatricals. In a number of cities where this attraction has played four or five times in the last two years their last engagement was better than the first, and the first day to the capacity of the theatre. This season's offering will show in entirely new comic and electrical production, consisting of several sensational mechanical effects, never before attempted in a musical comedy. A new book, by a famous author, added to which is the benefit of the entire theatrical experience of that deep and witty cartoon production, Gus Hill. Every last cartoon success in the last thirty years has been under his direction. His success with Mutt and Jeff is now the talk of the entire theatrical world, and his judgment in selecting the cartoons as the material for a play has made him a fortune. No expense has been spared to make the new production even more attractive than the original production. An entire new musical score has been furnished. Don't fail to see "Mutt and Jeff in College" at the Grand next Thursday, Friday and Saturday and Saturday matinee. Seats will be placed on sale Tuesday.

Harry Lauder, the great Scottish comedian, who will be seen here on Tuesday night, Jan. 10th, for one performance only, has been a busy man since he returned to England in December last. He went there primarily to see his only son, John, who was about to leave for the front, and who, having been wounded three times, is now Captain in the Arctics and Highlanders, and has just gone back for the third time for duty in France. While there Harry was appointed recruiting sergeant in his country's service, and, organizing a band of fifteen pipers he toured England and Scotland, raising out of his own pocket all the expenses of the band, and through his eloquent speeches he got thousands of young men to enlist under their country's banner.

The thing that has endeared him to "Tommy Atkins" as nothing else could and has made him the most popular man in England, was his little visits to the various hospitals where sick and wounded soldiers and sailors were being nursed back to health. Mr. Lauder, refusing many engagements, made a tour of these hospitals.

every one of which he gave an extended entertainment, singing all his well-known songs and improvising numbers that he thought would be of the greatest interest to the sick men.

"It really would have warmed your heart to see how the poor fellows appreciated my efforts. To lighten their troubles, and it made me feel mighty good to think that I was doing my part to make them happy. Here's a field for many a travelling actor. If he knew how good it would make him feel he would use his spare time while playing in these towns where hospitals for the wounded are located, to make the poor fellows a bit happier."

Seats for this engagement will go on sale Friday morning, and mail orders with remittance will be received now and given special attention.

"QUINNESS" COMING TO GRAND.

"Quinness" has been a great success on tour. This pleasant comedy by Horace Anselmi, Yachell is the kind of a play that American playwrights have not yet learned to write. It has something of the charm and appeal of "The Music Master" with the added advantage of being a much better play, structurally. It is dominated by one ably drawn character who holds the sympathy and interest throughout.

out, in a way that strongly suggests "Anarchy," but the comedy is also rich in characterizations that recall "Bunty," and other importations of pleasure. The locale is the antique furniture shop and the central character an eccentric and lovable old man, whose love of the beautiful things of antiquity, is only exceeded by the hatred of the cheap and tawdry. The setting is very unusual and superior. The company is headed by Frederick Ross, and other members are Margaret Watson, Peggy Raab, Arthur Grenville, Cathleen Nesbitt, Cecil Fletcher, Herbert Evans, and Cyril Griffiths. "Quinness" will be presented at the Grand on Thursday evening, Jan. 12th, for one night only.

GOOD THINGS COMING.

"A Pair of Hands," last season's funny comedy, is to be presented at the Grand for one night only, on Wednesday, January 12th, with an exceptionally clever company.

The ever popular golden voiced singer, Al. H. Wilson, will be seen at the Grand on Friday, and Saturday, January 13th, in a new romantic play entitled "As Tears Roll On."

"The Birth of a Nation," the wonderful photo drama which played to such big business in Hamilton a few weeks ago, is to return to the Grand for four days, Jan. 14, 15, 16, 17.

The music is one of the most delightful and satisfying features of the beautiful play and production, "Omars," at the Theatre. "Omars" will be seen at the Grand on Friday, and Saturday, January 13th, in a new romantic play entitled "As Tears Roll On."

Capacity business continues to prevail at the Temple Theatre, under the house's new policy of big-class vaudeville and feature photo-plays. And it is certainly great satisfaction that the management is furnishing for the money. This coming week's bill will include "Three Types of Beauty," a splendid posing act. Eddie Carr and company, in a merry little bit; De Leon and Davies, a singing and dancing number; the Crying Brunettes, wonderful comedians; Odette, a novel instrumental act, and five reels of first-run pictures, including the famous British Pathé Gazette. The headliners, and that ought to be sufficient to command it to theatre.

patrons, for Lucky has given vaudeville more attractions of genuine merit than probably any other producer. In this offering the blonde, brunettes and Titian types of beauty are charmingly contrasted. Beautiful coloring and scenic effects aid in making up a pretty stage picture as one would wish to see.

Eddie Carr is a merry comedian whose services are always in demand. His new vehicle, "The Office Boy," is said to be the best offering in which he has appeared yet. The dialogue is bright and snappy and there are many most amusing situations.

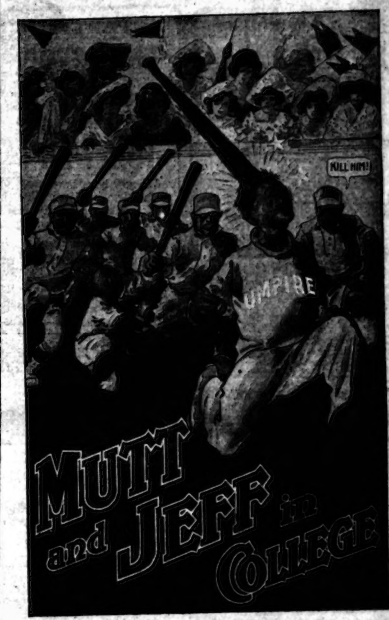

De Leon and Davies, clever dancers and pleasing singers, also manage to inject a lot of comedy into their act, which includes a burlesque on the movies.

Comedy A-Whirl is the way the Crying Brunettes fill their turn. They perform some really wonderful feats.

Odette, an instrumental novelty, in a piano and accordion act, will appeal to lovers of music.

SOMETHING SPECIAL AT SAVOY.

Manager Sturges, of the Savoy Theatre, will offer next week an attraction said to be distinctly different from the regular line of attractions that play his house in "The Girls from the Polities" Company, headed by the clever Hedrow comedian, Harry Stepp, who has been with this organization for five years. They present a two-act musical 'turo called "Dinah in Chinatown." The first act takes place in the slums of New York, the scene and characters being portrayed true to life, and the second shifts to the Palace roof garden. Upon the face of the curtain Goss is seen at the

GOOD TRADE FOR CANADA

West Indies Provide Opportunity, Watson Griffin Declares.

Old Hamilton Boy Addresses the Canadian Club.

An illustrated lecture on the "British West Indies" interested quite a number of the members of the Canadian Club last evening. Norman Slater, President, was in the chair and introduced the speaker.

Watson Griffin, a Hamilton man, in his early life, who has made a special study of the West Indies from the standpoint of trade and commerce, was introduced by the Department of Trade and Commerce to visit the British West Indies, and on his return presented a comprehensive report.

Mr. Griffin stated that British West India trade last year had totalled sixty four million dollars and Canada had got a large slice of the trade by taking numerous commercial mentures. The British West Indies had been given a preferential tariff and had been much to give the trade to British. These people were well worth going after. They were thrifty and dependable, though certain classes were being educated, as was characteristic of the people of many countries that were but beginning to come into their own.

The speaker told much of the life of the people, stating that they worked for 35 cents per day, and many of them saved money on it. Their home life was not ideal. In fact, most homes, all of which were small, were not furnished at all. But they were eager for education and showed rapid improvement.

A five-acre farm cost $60, payable in five years, and with an acre and a half one could have raised sufficient vegetables for his family and even in sufficient quantities to make $100 in one year.

The speaker paid a tribute to the work of the Canadian Presbyterian Church, which was making considerable progress for the children possible. When he had visited one of the schools and the children, he had been much impressed. At the conclusion of the address Mr. Slater and W. R. Dryden moved a hearty vote of thanks. During the evening Mr. Griffin had been much appreciated. George Jarvis acted as accompanist.

It is as dangerous to crowd the street as it is to crowd a ward.
